

Business Intelligence for Medical Practices

Running a practice requires critical decision-making.
Are you leaving yours to chance?

Information is a powerful tool — but only if it's at your fingertips. InfoDive® gives you instant access to insightful, actionable information about how your medical practice is performing. This web-based business intelligence solution allows you to quickly and easily analyze your internal data and compare your practice to others in a variety of areas including coding, productivity, marketing, revenue collection and more.

“The value of constantly monitoring and analyzing data over time has raised the overall awareness of the details of our business. The focus on better coding practices alone has more than justified the ROI for InfoDive!”

– Kevin Berger, M.D.

InfoDive® Changes the Way You Manage Your Business

“InfoDive and the savvy team is like having my own personal data mining department at a fraction of the cost. I can make critical strategic decisions with the best possible information. Finally, I can compete with payers on an even playing field.”

- Dan Schonwald, CMPE - Practice Administrator
Comprehensive Urologic Care

“We are very satisfied with the InfoDive reporting tool. It has genuinely enhanced our monthly reports by allowing us to track physician productivity on specific parameters that interest us, analyze payer performance and also identify pockets of A/R. We now turn to InfoDive reporting over our PM reports to get answers regarding our practice.”

- David J. Ellis, M.D.
Academic Urology

Given today's competitive marketplace, can you really afford to do business without it?
